PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION

The Royal Alberta United Services Institute (RAUSI), of Calgary, Alberta, offer two annual bursaries of $2,000.00 each to full time students registered in or attending any recognized post-secondary academic institution. This award is available to children or grandchildren of members of the RAUSI, members of Reserve Units of the Canadian Forces, members of a Cadet Corp, members of RAUSI or a Canadian resident whose home address must be located within a 110 km radius of Mewata Armoury. An applicant will not be considered if he/she has already been accepted by a Service College, or is in receipt of a Service Scholarship. One bursary only will be awarded to any one person. . Send the completed application with the following attachments to: Bursary Committee Chair, RAUSI, at the above address by September 30th. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Requirements include:

- A short letter (two hundred to two hundred and fifty words) giving an objective evaluation of your involvement in and contribution to the following, as appropriate: high school, community, Reserve Force, Cadet organization; and finally, your goals in life;
- Proof of registration / admission to a post secondary academic institution;
- A copy of your most recent academic transcript; and,
- A letter of recommendation from your academic institution, person of authority or Commanding Officer.

The decision making-body will consist of at least a three-person sub-committee from the RAUSI Board of Directors.
